A House Forever

2 Samuel 7 · 2 Samuel 11–12 · Psalm 51

The big idea: God promised David a son whose throne would last forever. Then David fell into adultery and murder, and when Nathan confronted him, he confessed without excuse. He was forgiven, and he still faced a Father's discipline. Jesus is the sinless Son of David.

Before you meet: Read

2 Samuel 7:1–17 | 2 Samuel 12:1–14 | Psalm 51:1–12

Open (5 minutes)

Think of a promise someone made to you that shaped your life. What made it trustworthy?

Observe (fill in from the passage)

"Your _____ shall be established _____." (2 Samuel 7:16)

"Create in me a clean _____, O God, and renew a right spirit within me." (Psalm 51:10)

Nathan said to David, "You are the _____!" (2 Samuel 12:7)

Discuss

1. David wanted to build God a house, and God promised to build David a house. Why does that order matter? 2 Samuel 7:1–16

2. Compare how Saul and David each responded when confronted with sin. What separates real repentance from making excuses? 1 Samuel 15:20–30; 2 Samuel 12:13

3. Jesus is called the son of David in the first verse of the New Testament. What does it mean to you that his throne lasts forever? Matthew 1:1; Luke 1:32–33

Memory verse

"Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me."

Psalm 51:10

Pray

Confess the ways you have wanted a king like the nations. Pray Psalm 51 for any sin God brings to mind. Thank God for his covenant promise to David, and bow before Jesus, the Son of David, as your King.

LEADER NOTES · WEEK 28

A House Forever

Session plan (about 45 minutes)

5 min	Welcome, opening prayer, and the Open question.
10 min	Read 2 Samuel 7:8–17 and 12:1–13 aloud together.
5 min	Observe: work through the fill-ins together. Use the answer key below.
20 min	Discuss: choose three of the questions.
5 min	Pray together. Introduce the memory verse and next week's reading (1 Kings 3 and 6).

Main points to land

1. In 2 Samuel 7 God promised David an offspring, a kingdom, a Father-son bond, and a throne forever. This is the covenant of grace narrowing to one royal family.
2. Saul made excuses when he was confronted. David said, "I have sinned against the LORD," and was forgiven at once (1 Sam. 15:20–30; 2 Sam. 12:13; Ps. 51).
3. David fell, confessed, and was forgiven, though he faced a Father's discipline. Jesus is the sinless Son of David, raised to reign forever (Acts 2:30–32; Luke 1:32–33).

Core doctrine to teach

Christ Our Prophet, Priest, and King CORE DOCTRINE 14 OF 26

In Israel, prophets spoke God's word, priests offered sacrifices, and kings ruled. Jesus fills all three offices. As prophet he reveals God to us, as priest he offered himself and prays for us, and as king he rules and defends us. He is the forever King promised to David. 2 Samuel 7:12–16; Deuteronomy 18:15; Hebrews 7:24–25; Luke 1:32–33

Answer key (Observe)

1. throne; forever
2. heart
3. man

Questions people will ask

How can David be called a man after God's own heart after adultery and murder?

The phrase describes God's choice of David and David's heart toward God, not a sinless life (1 Samuel 13:14; Acts 13:22). What set David apart was his repentance. He did not excuse his sin, and Psalm 51 shows a heart broken over it. God forgave him, and David still faced serious discipline.

Closing prayer

Father, you see not as man sees. Forgive us for wanting kings like the nations and for making excuses when we sin. Create in us clean hearts. Thank you for your covenant promise to David, kept in Jesus, the Son of David, who fought our battle, forgives our sin, and reigns forever. Make us loyal to our King. Amen.
