THE WHOLE STORY · SMALL GROUP GUIDE · WEEK 52 OF 52

All Things New

Revelation 12 · Revelation 19–22

The big idea: Evil is loud, and it is losing. Christ returns as King of kings, and every person will stand before God's judgment. Then God makes all things new and dwells with his people, with no more death, tears, or curse. The Bible ends with an invitation: whoever is thirsty, come.

Before you meet: Read

Revelation 19:11–16 | Revelation 20:11–15 | Revelation 21:1–7 | Revelation 22:1–5, 17

What is the best ending to a story, book, or movie you know? What made it satisfying?

Observe (fill in from the passage)

"Behold, the dwelling place of God is with _____. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people." (Revelation 21:3)

"He will wipe away every _____ from their eyes, and death shall be no more." (Revelation 21:4)

"Behold, I am making all things _____." (Revelation 21:5)

Discuss

1. How should the reality of final judgment shape the way we live and speak to others? Revelation 20:11–15; 22:17

2. Heaven comes down to earth in Revelation 21. How is that different from what most people imagine? Revelation 21:1–5; Romans 8:19–21

3. Looking back over all fifty-two weeks, what is the most important thing you have learned about God's story? Luke 24:27; Revelation 22:1–4

Memory verse

"Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God."

Revelation 21:3

Pray

Worship the Lamb who was slain and now reigns. Thank God that he will wipe away every tear and make all things new. Pray for anyone you know who has not yet come to Christ, and end with the church's oldest prayer: Come, Lord Jesus.

Main points to land

1. Evil is loud but losing. Christ returns as King of kings, and every person will stand before God's judgment (Revelation 19:11–16; 20:11–15; WCF 33).
2. God will make all things new and dwell with his people; there will be no more death, tears, or curse, and they will see his face (Revelation 21:1–5; 22:1–4).
3. The Bible ends with an invitation: whoever is thirsty may come and take the water of life without price (Revelation 22:17).

Core doctrine to teach

Christ's Return and the New Creation CORE DOCTRINE 26 OF 26

Jesus will return bodily and visibly in glory. He will raise the dead, judge the world in righteousness, and make all things new. Those who belong to him will live forever with God in a renewed creation, and those who refuse him will go away into eternal punishment under his just judgment (Matt. 25:46). Acts 1:11; 17:31; 1 Thessalonians 4:16–17; Revelation 21:1–5

Answer key (Observe)

1. man
2. tear
3. new
4. price

Questions people will ask

How can a loving God judge people in a lake of fire?
Because God is holy and just, evil cannot be ignored forever, and a God who never judged would not be good. Revelation 20 is sobering. But the same book offers the water of life without price to anyone who is thirsty (Revelation 22:17). The Lamb was slain so that sinners can be saved.

Closing prayer

Lord Jesus, you are the first and the last, the Lamb who was slain and now reigns. Thank you for walking us through your whole story. Keep us faithful until you come, make us eager to say Come to the thirsty, and bring us home to the city where we will see your face. Come, Lord Jesus. Amen.
