The Supper and the Garden

Luke 22:7–20 · Mark 14 · Mark 15:1–15

The big idea: On his last night Jesus gave the Passover a new meaning: his body given and his blood poured out for his people. In Gethsemane he faced the cup of God's wrath and chose to drink it. Then a guilty man went free while the innocent one was condemned.

Before you meet: Read

Luke 22:7–20 | Mark 14:32–50 | Mark 15:6–15

Open (5 minutes)

Has anyone ever taken the blame or paid a price for something you did? How did it feel?

Observe (fill in from the passage)

"This cup that is poured out for you is the new _____ in my blood." (Luke 22:20)

"Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I _____, but what you will." (Mark 14:36)

"And they all left him and _____." (Mark 14:50)

Discuss

1. What was the cup Jesus asked the Father to remove? Why did he drink it anyway? Mark 14:32–36; Isaiah 51:17

2. Barabbas went free while Jesus was condemned. How is that a picture of what Jesus does for sinners? Mark 15:6–15

3. The disciples all fled. What does Jesus' faithfulness to people who abandoned him say to you? Mark 14:50

Memory verse

"Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Yet not what I will, but what you will."

Mark 14:36

Pray

Thank Jesus for giving himself for you on the night he was betrayed. Bring one hard thing to God and pray Jesus' prayer: "Not what I will, but what you will."

LEADER NOTES · WEEK 41

The Supper and the Garden

Session plan (about 45 minutes)

5 min	Welcome, opening prayer, and the Open question.
10 min	Read Luke 22:14–20 and Mark 14:32–42 aloud together.
5 min	Observe: work through the fill-ins together. Use the answer key below.
20 min	Discuss: choose three of the questions.
5 min	Pray together. Introduce the memory verse and next week's reading (Mark 15 and Isaiah 52:13–53:12).

Main points to land

1. At the Last Supper, Jesus gave the new covenant in his blood. In the Lord's Supper, believers feed on him by faith (Luke 22:19–20; WSC 96).
2. In Gethsemane Jesus faced the cup of God's wrath against his people's sin, and he chose to drink it (Mark 14:36; Isa. 51:17).
3. Barabbas, a guilty man, walked free while the innocent one was condemned in his place (Mark 15:15).

Core doctrine to teach

The Lord's Supper CORE DOCTRINE 21 OF 26

On the night he was betrayed, Jesus took bread and the cup and told his followers to eat and drink in remembrance of him. The Lord's Supper proclaims his death until he comes. In it believers remember Christ, are strengthened in faith, and share in his body together (1 Corinthians 10:16–17). Luke 22:19–20; 1 Corinthians 10:16–17; 11:23–29

Answer key (Observe)

1. covenant
2. will
3. fled

Questions people will ask

Can anyone take the Lord's Supper?

The Supper is for those who trust Christ and examine themselves (1 Corinthians 11:28). Churches differ on whether baptism and membership must come first, so if you are not sure, talk with a pastor. The cross is offered to everyone; the table is where those who have received Christ keep coming back to feed on him by faith.

Closing prayer

Lord Jesus, on the night you were betrayed you gave yourself for us, and in the garden you chose the Father's will over your own. Thank you for taking the cup we deserved. Keep us near you, and bring us to your table with thankful hearts. Amen.
